When you arrive at Rhulani Safari Lodge in the Madikwe Game Reserve, you are greeted with a warm African welcome, smiling, singing faces, a refreshing facecloth and a cool drink. The four to five hour drive from Johannesburg recedes into memory as you bask under the thatch roof deck on comfortable sofas and absorb the sun. Rhulani's superb 5-star service is on call at all times so succumb to the tranquillity of this idyllic setting.

With a family suite or seven beautiful chalets – each with air-conditioning, a private deck, plunge pool and outdoor shower you can relax in the summer sun. Or, when the winter chill is biting, stay indoors with the Morso fireplace, hot chocolate and bubble bath, while waiting for the animals to stroll past the windows on the way to the waterhole in front of the lodge.

Set in the Malaria-Free Big Five game reserve of Madikwe, you can explore the park with experienced, highly trained rangers who will guide you in open vehicles and share their knowledge of the bush. Unforgettable game drive experiences await for the patient and the lucky – the bush can explode into life around every corner and there's always something interesting if you ask lots of questions.

You will be well fed at Rhulani with outstanding Boma dinners, indoor dining, romantic dinners for two or share a meal with other guests from all corners of the world. Serviced by an amazing team of dedicated, proud and passionate staff, you will be hard-pressed to find any flaws.
